See ya
there,

I know how you feel about your wrinkles and aging. I get it too. But I don't know how to do anything about it. I'm just getting older. I'm

PHOENIX
Christian High School
Phoenix, Arizona

Mr. Eugene Hovda, we humbly dedicate this annual to you. Your life and testimony exemplify the faith and devotion that is the goal of every Christian. Through your teaching, His Word has become real, and you have helped us to hide it in our hearts. Thank you for sharing your life and knowledge with us.

Because there is a Love far greater Than man can give to man,
I have learned to love.

Because there is a Hope above
The feeble wishing of human hearts,
I have learned to hope.

Because there is One Who gives
And gives and gives again to me,
I have learned to give.

Because there is One Who waits
To be gracious - even to me,
I have learned to wait.

Because of Him - the Prince of Peace,
Who fills each little emptiness,
I have learned His Peace.

The most exciting and busiest of all four years of high school is the Junior year. There are the concession stands, candy sales, and other money-raising projects. The profits from these enterprises are used for the Junior-Senior banquet, the biggest social event in the academic year.

The first year in high school! There are new friends to make, lots of different activities to go to, and new responsibilities. The freshmen begin the year with great anticipation, ambition, and even a little fear. By the end of the year, they have come to know the school, the teachers and many different students. They are a part of their class, they are proud of it, and they continue to work with their classmates in the many opportunities and class activities to follow.

Marry me . . .

This year, the Saginaw Citizens' First National Bank will award its First Citizen's Plaque to Grandma Maude Baker. There will be a fine testimonial dinner at which Hubert Winthrop, the bank's president, will pay tribute to "a woman who started to paint pictures on her sixtieth birthday, a woman who sells almost everything she paints and then turns every cent over to charity . . ."

However, what Hubert Winthrop will not know is that this sweet old lady's dedication to artistic perfection has also produced the best ten dollar bills ever printed outside the U.S. Mint. Indeed, this will be a secret shared only by Grandma and her cronies, who see nothing at all wrong with their little hobby, and Grandma's frantic grandson, Arnold, who discovers

Oh, boo-hoo . . .

Of course, you know the "G" in my name stands for "Genius."

Why what do you mean?

J. Edgar Hoover!

of Money

suddenly that as vice-president of the bank he has been an unwitting accomplice in the exchange of new money for old.

To complicate matters, just as the Federal Bureau of Investigation decides that Saginaw City is the operating base of a new counterfeiting ring, the same conclusion is being reached by the leaders of a national crime syndicate which, of course, does not look kindly upon such non-member success. As representatives of both organizations appear in town to locate the culprits and to stop their activities, the comic elements of the play reach hysterical proportions.

Attending both football and basketball games, these girls, clad in green and white, enthusiastically back the Cougars. Pep Club girls feel that being in Pep Club is well worth the time and energy it requires.

Pep Assemblies

During football and basketball seasons, Pep assemblies closed Fridays with the varsity cheerleaders leading the student body in cheers. The Pep Club, J. V. and varsity cheerleaders, and the classes presented skits. Many times our "big brass" band played in these assemblies promoting school spirit.

Sim
Well — I guess you're about the only "man" in our class. I hope you can accomplish all you hope to. Congratulations Mr. President! Thanks for everything. Sim I feel honored, but kinda silly too. I hope ya don't hate girls all your life?
 The school spirit at Phoenix Christian High is kept on a high plane with the help of these Varsity Cheerleaders. May God bless and help you in everything ya do.

Cheering at football and basketball games, they remain enthusiastic whether the team wins or loses.

In addition these lively girls feed the flame of their school spirit by leading the Friday afternoon "Pep" assemblies.

J.V. Cheerleaders

Suzanne Groves, Dee Dee Inman, Cindy Pannel, Kathy Hamm, Rachel Cook.

These five Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were on the scene early this year when they supported not only the J.V. Football team, but also the J.V. Basketball team.

In addition to supporting the Junior Varsity teams, these cheerleaders aid in the "Pep" assemblies.

Kathy Hamm, Suzanne Groves, Dee Dee Inman, Rachel Cook, Cindy Pannel.

Timothy,
Hi ya ugly — that'll ruin your ego for the time being. We've really gotten to know each other pretty well. You've probably hated every second of it. But I've even loved it. Even though you always have to tell someone how hard somebody is working you are cause nobody will tell you, you still have a few good points.
I haven't forgiven 'em yet but there's must be some sense you did get that. By the way congratulations! Hope you learn how to charm "WOMEN." And also how not to be fraid of them. This is the only time I'll tell ya this to ya better appreciate this. I really do think a lot of ya. Good luck and keep your beliefs — they're great your secret admirer and will never be known to it — me

Homecoming 1964

Everyone's eyes were fixed on the blue and purple Homecoming float as it made its way majestically around the football field. The Senior representatives followed in new Chevrolet convertibles. The Royal Court was composed of Elaine Stookey and Jon McEown, Freshman Attendants; Suzanne Groves and Steve Hovda, Sophomore Attendants; and Cindy Pannel and Tim Smith, the Junior Attendants. Tension mounted as the Senior representatives were presented to the hushed crowd. When Paula Mains and Jon Abel were announced as the Senior Attendants, Leni VanderWagen and George Pannel realized that they were the 1964 Homecoming Queen and King.

Valedictorian

Betsy Smith came to Phoenix Christian at the beginning of her Junior year after attending two years at Belleview High School in Belleview, Michigan. Betsy is quite active in many school organizations such as Missionary Club, Pep Club, and A Cappella Choir. Last year she received the Outstanding Junior English Award and Second Year French Award. Betsy is also a member of National Honor Society and was selected "Optimist Student of the Month."

BETSY SMITH

The honor of being chosen as Valedictorian or Salutatorian of the Senior Class is indeed a great achievement for any Senior. This year's honored Seniors are Betsy Smith, Valedictorian, and Becky Williams, Salutatorian. Each has displayed fine leadership abilities in many areas of life at Phoenix Christian High School, as well as an outstanding scholastic record. Of utmost importance are the Christian testimonies which both Betsy and Becky maintain daily on campus.

REBECCA WILLIAMS

Salutatorian

Becky Williams transferred to Christian High from Bemidji High School in Bemidji, Minnesota at the beginning of her Junior year. Her many activities include Yearbook Staff, Future Homemakers of America, Pep Club, and National Honor Society. She was also the student director of the Junior-Senior play during her Junior year, and she has received the International Optimist Award.

DANIEL CRENSHAW and JOE BURTON

Boy's State

Joe Burton is the Junior Representative to Student Council. Also he is very active in football, basketball, and baseball.

Dan Crenshaw came to P. C. H. S. this year from Coulter Academy in Los Angeles. He is active in Band and National Honor Society.

Arizona Boy's State and Arizona Girl's State is a citizenship training program sponsored by the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary. The students experience the actual operating of a democratic government by living, for this time, in a mythical state, electing officers, and setting up a Legislature and City Council. For a week in June they learn to act as self-governing people and how to take responsibilities as citizens.

Representatives are selected on the basis of leadership, character, and service.

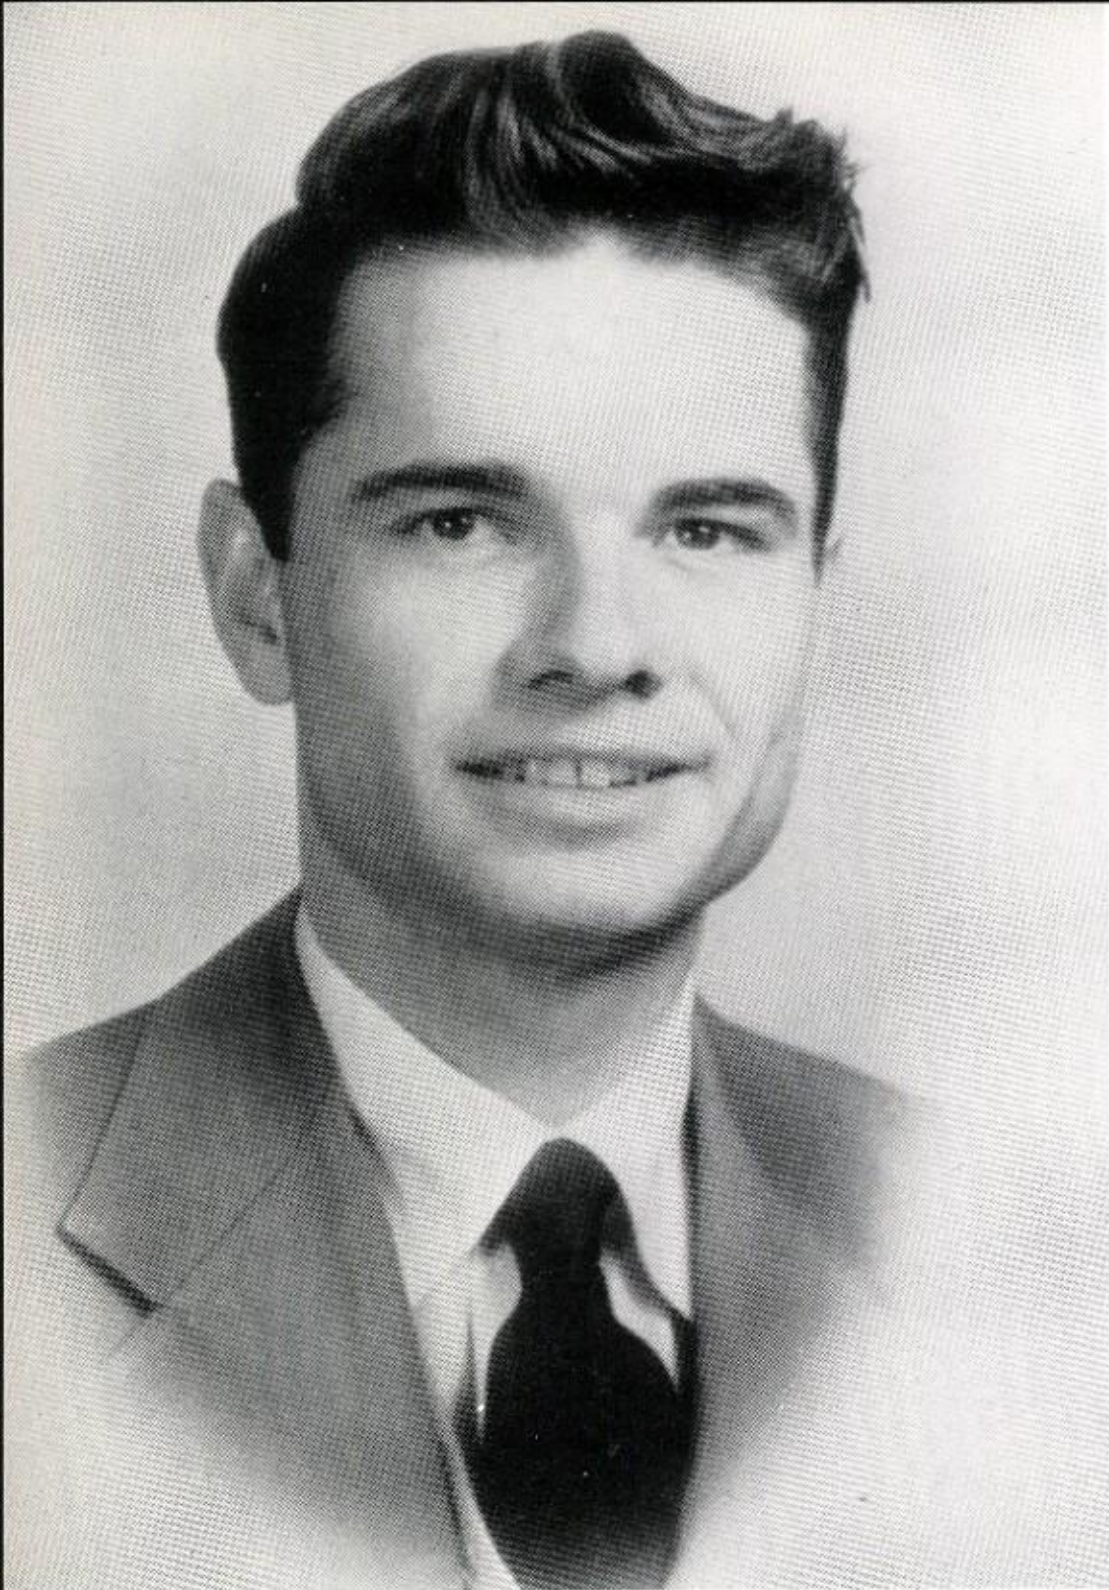

SHELLY PENSINGER

Girl's State

Shelly Pensinger has attended P. C. H. S. all three years. She is president of G. A. A. This year she is the Junior Class representative to the Student Council. She is also active in Missionary Club. Last year she was treasurer of Latin Club.

MY CHOICE

I want my breakfast served at "Eight."
With ham and eggs upon the plate;
A well-broiled steak I'll eat at "One."
And dine again when day is done.

I want an ultra modern home,
And in each room a telephone;
Soft carpets, too, upon the floors,
And pretty drapes to grace the doors.

A cozy place of lovely things,
Like easy chairs with innersprings,
And then I'll get a small TV--
Of course, "I'm careful what I see."

I want my wardrobe, too, to be
Of neatest, finest quality,
With latest style in suit and vest,
Why shouldn't Christians have the best?

But then the Master I can hear,
In no uncertain voice, so clear,
"I bid you come and follow me,
The Lowly Man of Galilee.

Birds of the air have made their nest,
And foxes in their holes find rest;
But I can offer you no bed;
No place have I to lay my head."

In shame I hung my head and cried,
How could I spurn the Crucified?
Could I forget the way He went,
The sleepless nights in prayer He spent?

For forty days without a bite,
Alone He fasted day and night;
Despised, rejected--on He went,
And did not stop till veil He rent.

A Man of sorrows and of grief,
No earthly friend to bring relief--
"Smitten of God," the prophet said-- Mocked, beaten, bruised, His blood ran red.

If He be God and died for me,
No sacrifice too great can be
For me, a mortal man, to make;
I'll do it all for Jesus' sake.

Yes, I will tread the path He trod,
No other way will please my God;
So, henceforth, this my choice shall be,
My choice for all eternity.

Jim:

I guess I could say lots of little things that have happened in the past but we must think about present. (ahem)

Even though I hate to and it sort of hurts my pride, I guess I have to say (I don't have to) that I honestly respect you more than most of the guys in our class. May be it's because I know you better than most of them, but I think there's more to it than that. I've never known a guy that could get me more flustered and aggravated because you just seem so unassuming. Well, too bad... remember you're representing the Lord in what ever you do, & always let Christ come first in your life.

1965 Million Dollar Round Table

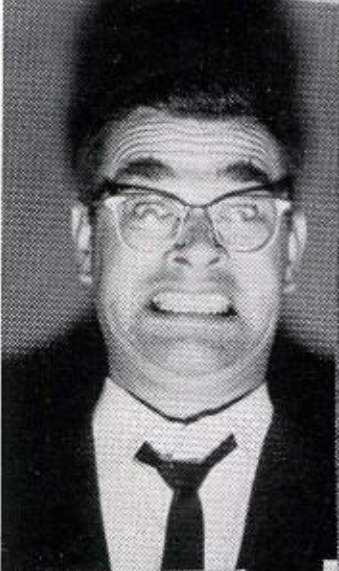

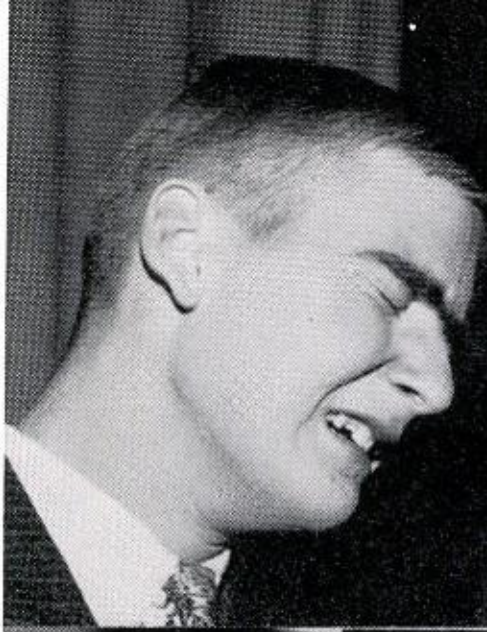

Tim,
 Well
 We all pulled for you in that big campaign and you came through with flying colors. I don't think I could have left that old gavel in more capable hands. I stand up for what you believe in and give your officer the attention and respect it deserves. I know you will because you've shown a lot of backbone as deep.
 Have fun as our big leader and call on God whenever things get bogged down. Keep 'em working,
 Jon Abel
 '65'

Jim, I am Well, I am sure glad to see that you made student body President. I know you'll do a great job. I hope I'll see you again next year. Stay as nice as you are. Joanna

Jim -
 It has been nice knowing you these past three years.
 Congratulations
 on President.
 Good luck.
 See ya next year.

Kathleen
